SERVING THE PEOPLE OF TULLY

Tully Parks and Rec Makes a Donation and a Difference

At the end of June, the Tully Parks and Recreation department was able to donate over 100 unused t-shirts to children in need in Ho, Ghana. This was part of a mission trip through the Eastern Hills Bible Church in Manlius. The shirts were given to students at the Brilliant Academy, a school set up by Eastern Hills, a local orphanage and a school dedicated to teaching local deaf and blind students.

Eastern Hills Bible Church teams up with a company called IJM, the International Justice Mission. Together they work to stop child labor and trafficking on Volta Lake in Ghana. Along with t-shirts, the program also donates school supplies, hygiene products, first aid supplies, flip-flops and other sports supplies. Soccer is really the only game that these kids are introduced to, so by having new t-shirts the kids are able to separate into different teams and organize games.

The Tully Parks and Recreation department is extremely honored to have been able to help these Ghanaian children in need. We see the excitement and fun our own local children have playing organized recreational sports and are thrilled that we are able to spread this excitement all the way to Africa! This program takes place each year, and we will look to help out in the future.

The community-fueled Tully Arts Council is presenting the classic musical, with a cast full of local shining stars, singing, dancing and magically flying their way across the stage.

Director Marianne Ralbovsky is certain audiences will be awed at the immense talent that graces this small town stage. It is sure to be a treat for families looking to make lasting memories, spending time together taking in a fantastic show about a magical Nanny who brings two children closer together with their clueless father.

Make a point of coming to see this wonderful Broadway musical--it will only stay until the wind changes...

Tickets are $10 for adults and $5 for children 10 and under, a great summer deal. You can purchase tickets at TicketLeap <https://tullyartscouncil.ticketleap.com/tully-arts-council-presents-mary-poppins>

Tickets also available at the Tully Artworks studio box office, the Arts Council's home at 5 Elm Street [formerly Encore Video], featuring the Bloomin' Cup coffee bar.

While in Tully, make sure to take some time to check out the inspiring artwork created by local artists, as well as a special piece made by wood carving artists from Portugal, Germany and Spain, The Last Supper, which is on loan and display at the Tully Artworks studio for a short time only. This special piece is a breathtaking example of serious woodcarving skill and artistry. Local craftsman and master wood artist Matteo Bartolotta of Auburn, a good friend of the Tully Arts Council, has loaned the piece to the Council, allowing the priceless piece to debut in the ArtWorks gallery before it heads out on a worldwide tour of museums.

6th Annual Kings Corner Market

We are back at it again! Tuesday nights from 4-7pm at the 4 corners in the village we host our annual village market. Come meet some of the quality local producers, artist and farmers. This is a great opportunity to stock up for canning/freezing, ask the vendors your questions, get a chance to meet your neighbors and enjoy some of the finest things the local community has available.

KCM is the only market of its kind in upstate NY. The KCM board is a group of volunteers that recognizes the value of introducing the community to its local producers. We are a platform market that provides an organized, consistent opportunity for introductions and relationships, its our effort to help sustain our local economy. This market was designed to give the community the ability to make connections so that they can continue doing business locally throughout the year. We do have rules and regulations as to who and what qualifies, but there is no fee for participation. New vendors are always welcome, if interested contact Amy Kida directly at Amy@earth2soul.com or 315.238.4825.

KCM is non-profit, all of our funding for marketing and advertising is earned through the sales of our "KCM" T-Shirts and glasses. These items are available at the KCM table located on the corner by Rusty Wheel Pottery and Earth 2 Soul. Take a minute to stop by and say hi, give us feedback and make a purchase to support what we believe to be a worthy community effort. Show your support and make plans to shop on Tuesday evenings in the village. We look forward to seeing you rain or shine.
